A black and white architectural rendering of a modern building interior. The scene features a complex network of steel trusses and beams forming a ceiling structure. On the right, there is a glass-walled corridor or atrium. In the center, a large white rectangular sign is prominently displayed. The sign contains the text "eco·nize" in a bold, lowercase, sans-serif font, with a registered trademark symbol (®) to the upper right of the word "nize".
